

Open Letter to Celebrities, Sports Figures, and Business Leaders

In a moment when the very foundations of our democratic institutions are being destroyed, concentration camps are being constructed in America, and individuals are being targeted, kidnapped, tortured, and executed in the streets, your voice carries a weight that few others possess. Millions of fans have followed your careers, celebrated your achievements, and, in many ways, helped create the lifestyle you now enjoy, a life built on freedoms that countless others around the world still yearn for.

That privilege comes with a responsibility that extends far beyond the stage, screen, or field. When the rule of law is eroded, when truth is twisted, and when the rights of ordinary citizens are threatened, silence is no longer an option. History repeatedly shows that when influential individuals speak out, they can galvanize entire movements, shift public discourse, and compel those in power to listen.

Millions of American citizens are standing up, speaking out, taking all the risks, and doing the right thing. It is time for America's celebrities, stars, and athletes to do the same. You must take a stand and support our citizens, who have given you so much throughout your careers. You can no longer sit on the sidelines and wait for everyday Americans to do the work; it is your turn, your obligation to do the same. Show courage, show resolve, show your thanks.

We therefore issue this urgent, heartfelt plea:

Speak Out Publicly: Use your platforms, social media, interviews, concerts, films, or any venue where you are heard, to denounce the assaults on free speech, fair elections, and independent institutions. A clear, unequivocal statement from you will reverberate across borders and inspire countless others to do the same.

Mobilize Your Community: Encourage your fans to become informed, register to vote, attend town halls, and support organizations defending democratic norms. When your followers see you taking a stand, they are far more likely to translate that inspiration into concrete action.

Align With the People: Join forces with established civil-society groups, journalists, and legal advocates who are already on the front lines. By lending your name and resources, you amplify their impact and signal that the fight for democracy is a shared, universal cause.

Model Courage: In an era where many choose convenience and profit over conviction, your willingness to risk backlash demonstrates true leadership. It tells the world that the privileges you enjoy are inseparable from the duty of protecting the freedoms that made them possible.

Our democracy thrives when its citizens are bold, vocal, and unafraid to confront tyranny. You have been given a platform because the public believes in you; now they look to you to help safeguard the very freedoms that allow that belief to flourish.

We stand ready to support you, whether through coordinated messaging, fact-checked talking points, or connections to reputable advocacy groups. Together, we can turn the tide, protect the rights of every citizen, and ensure that the future remains democratic, just, and inclusive.

The world is watching, and the stakes could not be higher. The people and history will remember who stood up and those who did not.
